

PRIVACY POLICY

At Diving Belle we take our customers' privacy seriously.

We hold your personal data securely on computer in compliance with the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR). Details of our financial transactions with you are held in a cloud based encrypted accounting program.

We keep personal data solely for administrative purposes.

It is not used for marketing. It is not sold.

If you have given us written consent to pass your personal data to specified third parties, it may be shared with them if the need arises. You can consent to all, some, or none.

- QHM / River Police
- Emergency Services
- Officers of your Mooring Association or Club
- River Management authorities
- Partner or family member

Relevant details may be made available to the emergency services if problems arise, in order to protect property or life, prevent damage or injury.

If you are a mooring customer and you ask us to help you sell your mooring, we may pass your details to prospective buyers. We will not do this without your consent.

You are entitled by law to view, amend, or delete the personal information that we hold. Email your request to kay@divingbelle.co.uk

How long do we keep your data?

At the end of our financial year we review the database and remove redundant entries.

If you notify us that you cease being a customer we remove your personal data from our database.

By law we are allowed up to one month to do so.

Financial data is not deleted but is kept in an encrypted archived form in our accounting program, so that we can comply with any relevant law.
